THE UNITED STATES GRAND JURY CHARGES THAT:

(INVOLUNTARY MANSLAUGHTER)

On or about August 19, 2012, within the exterior boundaries of the Red Lake Indian Reservation, in the State and District of Minnesota, the defendant, an Indian, did knowingly and unlawfully kill a human being, Kaishauna Sky Thunder, also an Indian, without malice, in the commission of an unlawful act not amounting to a felony.

GORDON DEAN JOHNSON,

The defendant did act with gross negligence and without due caution in circumspection of a lawful act which might have produced death, to-wit: operating a motor vehicle in a reckless manner, while under the influence of alcohol, and killing a pedestrian (Kaishauna Sky Thunder) in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1112(a), 1112(b), and 1153(a).
